

THE BOSTON CONSULTING GROUP

Dear Commonwealth Scholar

My name is Ross Love and I am a Senior Partner and Managing Director at The Boston Consulting Group (BCG) in Australia.

BCG has the largest footprint of all the premium consulting firms in Australia, with offices in Canberra, Melbourne, Perth and Sydney. We work hand-in-hand with leading businesses across the globe to resolve their most significant challenges and position them at the cutting edge of their industry.

BCG in Australia is experiencing high levels of growth despite global volatility. We partner with leading retailers, financial institutions, media and telecommunications companies to develop new ways to grow in rapidly shifting competitive landscapes. We also support resource and energy companies to accelerate planned major growth programs. And we work with Governments around the country in areas that are important to families and communities, and to the efficient running of Government business. Across every industry, we work with the real decision makers in organisations and we measure our own success by the value we create for our clients.

I would like to invite you to a one-on-one catch-up where you can learn more about management consulting and opportunities with BCG in Australia. Senior colleagues from Australia including myself will be in Oxford on Friday 30 November 2012. The conversations should last about 20 minutes and there are time slots available throughout the day (location tbc).

Catch-ups are limited therefore if you are interested please send a copy of your resume together with a paragraph on your motivation to my colleague Ashna Patel (patel.ashna@bcg.com) by Friday 9 November 2012 who will in turn let you know if you have been allocated a one-on-one catch-up.

In the meantime you can find out more about BCG by visiting our website www.bcg.com.au

Regards

Ross Love
Senior Partner and Managing Director
