COMMONWEALTH SCHOLARSHIP COMMISSION IN THE UNITED KINGDOM

Anti-Fraud, Bribery and Corruption Policy

1. Purpose and scope

- 1.1 This policy relates to the activities of the Commonwealth Scholarship Commission (CSC), its members, members of the CSC Secretariat, any other organisation contracted to provide specific administrative or other services on the CSC's behalf, over which it can reasonably be expected to have control (hereafter referred to as 'CSC delivery partners'), and CSC Scholars, Fellows and Alumni in so far as their actions are related to the CSC, subject to the qualifications below.
- 1.2 This Anti-Fraud, Bribery and Corruption Policy sets out the standards that must be met by the CSC, Scholars, Fellows and Alumni and the CSC's delivery partners in order to ensure individuals comply with the UK Anti-Bribery Act 2010 and Fraud Act 2006. It sets out the standards that must be met and clarifies the actions that individuals need to make with regards to actual or perceived fraud, bribery or corruption.
- 1.3 This policy relates to fraud, bribery and corruption. References to fraud refer also to acts of bribery and corruption.
- 1.4 Complaints unrelated to fraud, bribery or corruption should be submitted using the CSC's Complaints Policy.
- 1.5 The CSC is committed to the prevention of fraud, bribery and corruption and the promotion of an anti-fraud culture.
- 1.6 The CSC operates a zero-tolerance attitude to fraud, bribery and corruption and requires Commissioners, members of the Secretariat staff, nominating agencies, members of selection committees, applicants, Scholars, Fellows, Alumni and delivery partners to act honestly and with integrity at all times, and to report all reasonable suspicions of fraud, bribery or corruption.
- 1.7 The CSC, its delivery partners and/or DFID will investigate all instances of actual, attempted and suspected fraud committed by the above named bodies and individuals and will where appropriate seek to recover funds lost to the Commission through fraud, bribery or corruption.

2. Definitions

- 2.1 The term fraud is commonly used to describe the use of deception to deprive, disadvantage or cause loss to another person or party; or secure unwarranted personal gain. An example of fraud would be to submit false qualifications or other achievements with a scholarship application, or for a scholar on award not to inform the CSC of travel plans which may affect their stipend payments, or for a scholar to fail to repay advances of stipend or payments an individual is not otherwise entitled to.
- 2.2 The term bribery is an inducement or reward offered, promised or provided to gain personal, commercial, regulatory or contractual advantage. An example of bribery would be for a candidate to offer money to a nominating agency in order to be nominated for a scholarship, or for a scholar to offer a gift to a CSC staff member in order to have their award extended.

- 2.3 The term corruption is broadly defined as the abuse of entrusted power for personal gain. An example of corruption would be for an employee of a national nominating agency to offer to nominate a candidate in return for a gift, or for an employee of the CSC to withhold payments to scholars for personal gain.

3. Reporting Suspicions

- 3.1 Where a suspicion of fraud is against a CSC delivery partner (including a nominating agency, contracted travel or finance provider, or the British Council), the suspicion should be raised in the first instance with the organisation concerned, according to their organisation's anti-fraud policy.
- 3.2 Where the suspicion is about the CSC, a Scholar or Fellow, or a CSC delivery partner but it would not be appropriate to address the suspicion with the partner directly, or an unsatisfactory response has been given when the suspicions were raised directly, the suspicions, with all necessary evidence should be presented in writing to the CSC addressed to the Executive Secretary (or the Deputy Chair of the Commission only if the suspicion is regarding the Executive Secretary), either by email to fraud@cscuk.org.uk or by post to Commonwealth Scholarship Commission, Woburn House, 20-24 Tavistock Square, London, WC1H9HF, United Kingdom.
- 3.3 Where it would not be appropriate to address the suspicion with the CSC, or an unsatisfactory response has been given when the suspicions were raised directly with the CSC, a report should be submitted to the DFID Counter Fraud Section (CFS) by email to reportingconcerns@dfid.gov.uk or by phone to +44 (0) 1355 843747.
- 3.4 The Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 and the CSC Public Interest Disclosure Policy protect employees who raise concerns about certain matters of public interest in good faith. The CSC will take all reasonable steps to ensure that confidentiality is maintained in such cases, and that those making allegations are not disadvantaged in any way by doing so. In addition, free independent advice can be obtained from the charity Public Concern at Work on 020 7404 6609 (www.pcaw.org.uk).
